EDMONTON BULLETIN, JUNE 29TH, 1899.

PARLIAMENTARY.

The premier stated on Thursday in reply to Sir Hibbert Tupper, that the question of bringing in a bill this session dealing with Chinese immigration was engaging the attention of the government.

In the house about five o'clock the same morning Mr. Foster said he would allow the item of $25,000 for telegraphic service in the Yukon to pass if the letter of instructions to J. B. Charleson was got. Mr. Gobeil, deputy minister of public works, left the house and went to his office in the department and tore the copy of the letter out of the letter book. Mr. Fielding presented this letter to the house and it will be seen that it contains nothing that was not told the house early in the evening. The works which Mr. Charleson was to do were summarized as follows: Construction of telegraph line from a point on Canadian territory at Lake Bennett to Dawson City and the examination for a line connecting Lake Bennett with Atlin and Quesnelle. The improvement of the rivers mentioned in the report of the public works and the construction of such buildings at Dawson as might be absolutely necessary. This was to be done after consulting with Mr. Ogilvie. Mr. Charleson was also asked to make an examination of the country through which the telegraph line was to go so as to ascertain the possibility of building a road through that section. The letter said that J. C. Tache, assistant engineer of the department of public works, was to have a salary of $2,800 a year, and a Mr. Boyer was to be his assistant with $150 per month. For the construction of the telegraph line Mr. J. F. Richardson, of the C. P. R. staff, was to have $2,500 a year. Mr. Charleson was to have power to make all purchases and his accounts signed by him would have to be sent to the public works department. Letters of introduction were enclosed to Commissioner Ogilvie. Mr. Charleson was also instructed to operate twenty-five or fifty miles of the line as soon as constructed. In connection with this it may be mentioned that on the 30th of May Mr. Charleson telegraphed Mr. Gobeil from Lake Tagish over the government line and White Pass road to Skagway via Vancouver.

Mr. Foster spoke at some length, but finally said that he would allow the item to pass.

Mr. Clarke Wallace, however, followed him and again came Mr. Bergeron. The item of $26,000 for building the telegraph to Dawson was then passed, and another item, after which the house adjourned at 6.35 a. m.

A bill of considerable importance will be taken up by Mr. Blair at the next meeting of the railway committee. Its provisions will deal with the building of telegraph and telephone lines, public bridges and the operation and control of railways. Perhaps the most important is that which refers to operating rules for railways. It is provided that the railway committee of the privy council may make rules and regulations for all railways within the jurisdiction of the Dominion parliament. These rules will supersede all previous ones. Such rules will be subject to the approval of the governor-in-council. Another provision in the bill is to give power to the railway committee of the privy council to order railway companies to erect and maintain stations at given points. The bill also provides that any one destroying gates, fences or buildings of the company, or entering a train with the idea of defrauding the company of the fare, will be liable to fine and imprisonment.

Telegraph and telephone companies, incorporated by act of parliament, are empowered to break up or open any highway subject to the jurisdiction of the municipal council. Travel is not to be obstructed and the company is not to needlessly destroy shade trees. The surface of the street must be restored to its former state. In case parliament shall order at any future time the wires to be placed underground, the companies now entitled to carry them on their poles will not be able to recover damages.

In the case of companies incorporated to construct railway and general traffic bridges no discrimination for transportation or running privileges can be made against any company, and tools will be controlled by the governor-in-council. Two years will be given for commencing such works and five for their completion.

UNSATISFACTORY DIGGINGS.

A letter from Henry Hollings, of Edmonton, dated on Swift Current Creek on May 11th, gives a very unflattering account of the gold diggings and prospects there. Mr. Hollings says:

"I could not see much more than a lot of big boulders, and could not pan out as many colors as on the McLeod. What all the excitement was about I don't know, nor can you find out here. There are 23 claims staked out on the creeks, and four well built shacks, some sluice boxes and a shaft 35 feet deep now filled with water. What they went to all this work for I will leave it for some one else to figure out as I cannot see. Even if there was gold in the creek it would take a fortune to work, for it is filled with boulders as big as a house, some of them. There is a sign on one of the shacks that the miners held a meeting and agreed to lay over until the 15th of September on account of high water. Another says: 'gone to railroad for grub,' so that is about all the information I can give you about Mr. Jackson's $40 a day claim. Sam Derr, Jos. Hostyn and Dan Noyes, Jr., were here and pulled over to Starvation meadows yesterday. There is a man there who has got the black leg and scurvy, and they took some medicine to him. Two fellows got here the night before last from Golden, walked all the way with packs on their backs. They started back yesterday without staking. The Frenchmen with whom I send this did not stake either. I think I will pull on and may go out by Kamloops if possible."

TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS.

The teachers' examinations commence on Monday in Strathcona, before school inspector Peritt. The examinations are held on the south side this year owing to the majority of those writing being on that side. Those writing from Edmonton are:

For first: Miss Maggie Young, Miss Maggie McCauley.

For second: Miss H. McCallum, Miss Edith Bellamy, Miss Annie Evans, Miss Inga Oliver, and S. Marshall.

For third: Miss Mable McCauley, Miss Winnie Shand, Miss Eva Watson and John McDougall.

ST. JEAN BAPTISTE CELEBRATION.

A celebration of the united societies of St. Jean Baptiste of Morinville, St. Albert, St. Pierre, Beaumont, Fort Saskatchewan and Edmonton, was held at the Fort on Saturday and Sunday.

The proceedings began on Saturday by a procession from the house of Jos. Lamoureux, the president, to the church where a very solemn and impressive service was performed by Bishop Legat, assisted by Father Leduc and Rev. Mr. Bouchard. The sermon of the day was preached by Rev. Mr. Ethier, of Beaumont. After mass a procession took place to the picnic grounds, where sports, dancing and amusements of all kinds took place. In the evening speeches were made by Messrs. Villeneuve, Shera and Mariaggi.

On Sunday another religious ceremony took place and another sermon was preached by Rev. Father Dorais, of Fort Saskatchewan. In the evening a convention was held on the picnic grounds and speeches made by Messrs. Villeneuve, Prince, Gariepy, J. Lamoureux, Royal, Larue and others.

A great number of visitors were present from all the neighboring settlements and a thoroughly pleasant time was passed by all.

INNISFAIR RACES.

The Innisfair races and sports took place on the 22nd. A number of horses were present from outside points, both Calgary and Edmonton sending representatives. Rain which had fallen steadily for some hours before the races, left the track heavy. The different racing events were won as follows:

Half mile pony race, 12 started. Meteor, of Olds, 1st; Honest John, 2nd; Sleet, 3rd.

In the free for all trot Parslow's Cherry Ripe won both heats, beating Starline easily.

Five-eighth-mile dash. Four started. Bentley's Tranby Croft got away about six lengths behind the field. Parslow's Dixie Land winning the race by a short lead, Minnette second and Tranby Croft third. The finish was very close.

Five starters, all to carry 164 lbs. Five starters. Dr. Lauders' "Doc," ridden by Bentley, won. Roxie 2nd, ridden by Boyce, and Page third.

This completed the arranged programme, but next day two matched races were run.

Tranby Croft and Minnette, half mile, was won by Minnette.

Roxie and Doc was won by Roxie. The races were well arranged and everything passed off successfully, particular credit being due to Mr. Milligan, the secretary, to whose untiring energy the success of the meet is largely due.

FOOTBALL.

The second match between Strathcona and Edmonton footballers took place on the south side on Tuesday night and resulted in a victory for Strathcona by three goals to one. The first goal was taken by Edmonton in the first innings and it was not until the last ten minutes of the last half that Strathcona scored at all when they ran in three goals in rapid succession, leaving them easy winners of the second match. This is one game apiece for the clubs. The third and decisive one will be played on the 1st here, when a close and interesting game may be expected.

The peace delegates at the Hague conference discussed the matter of dum-dum bullets, viz. military rifle bullets with a soft lead end which on striking a human body, or any other target, are flattened by the impact, causing a serious wound. Major Sir John Ardagh, of the British delegation, declared that Great Britain did not desire to use any projectile inconsistent with the principles of modern warfare and that dum-dums should only be used against an uncivilized foe. The convention finally resolved in favor of prohibiting the use of bullets which easily flattened out in the human body or explosive bullets, bullets in a hardened case, which do not entirely cover the point or bullets with an incision. The British and American delegates alone voted in the negative. The use of any new explosive in projectiles from balloons was prohibited for five years. The question of restraining the introduction of new type rifles was deferred. Count Soltyk's report was then taken up. It declared that the sub-committee, though unable to agree regarding the proposed torpedo boats and the use of explosives, had declared against the use of asphyxiating gases, which the first committee also approved.

LOCAL

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Edmiston and family returned from Banff last night.

W. Scott Robertson and Misses Robertson returned from Banff on last night's train.

R. L. Alexander, representing the Alexandria cream separator, was in town last week.

A letter has been received from A. H. Martin, formerly taxidermist here, announcing his safe arrival in New Mexico.

At a council meeting held on Tuesday night the application of the sports committee for a grant from the town council towards the 1st. of July celebration here was refused.

ROBERT, the fifteen year old son of Alexis F. Degeane, died on Tuesday last at the family residence here after a lingering illness of over a year. The funeral took place yesterday to the cemetery here.

WORD has been received from N. G. Flater announcing his and W. L. Foote's safe arrival in Atlin. They had to travel largely on the ice which did not go out until June. The mail was not leaving and particulars of their trip and the prospects there would be sent out later.

ARRANGEMENTS having been made by the C. P. R. to that effect, passengers for Winnipeg exhibition may leave here on Thursday's train, the 6th, thus reaching Winnipeg on Friday night or Saturday morning. The exhibition formally opens on Monday but the programme does not commence until Tuesday.

NOTWITHSTANDING the high prices quoted for seneo root—at least 20 cents a pound here—and the apparently insuperable fact that large quantities of it can be dug throughout Alberta, local dealers tell us there is none at all offered on the market here. This seems strange as, if the trade were worked up, it should be a very profitable one to the digger.

OWING to the lack of a proper track to practice on and also on account of the wet weather which has been unfavorable to wheeling, it is doubtful if the bicycle club will be able to arrange a programme of races for the 1st. of July here. The industrial exhibition association intend building, later on, a quarter mile bicycle track close to the present track on their new grounds.

S. A. BENTLEY and his racer, Traaby Croft, arrived by rail from Innisfail on Tuesday. Reminiscent, the Indian chief of the Hobema agency, was in Vetsakwin. He had just received the communication of secretary Cooper of the sports committee, inviting him to visit Edmonton and participate in the 1st. of July celebration here, and was highly gratified with the hour and expressed his intention of visiting Edmonton without fail. Between Red Deer and Black falls fifteen Red River carts were worked up to participate in Edmonton's big "polstich."

GOLDEN EYE. Messrs Carnes and Palmore, who went in from Donald with Archdeacon McKay, on his trip to Tete Jaune Cache, have returned, and give anything but favorable accounts of the new field. The Archdeacon has also written to Mr. Pitts saying he could not find anything on Swift Current, but he got good prospects on Baptiste Creek and vicinity, and would remain to thoroughly prospect that section of country. If favorable, he would locate claims for his Donald friends. The Archdeacon is expected out daily.

W. GIFFORD who went north last spring by canoe up the Peace, went through and came out by the coast, returning to here in Colquhoun. On writing of his trip he says: I wintered on the Dease river, where I had been informed by Indians and others there was good trapping. Henry and John McCoy of Peace river and George Graham wintered with us. I left our shanty on the Dease and in company with Dan McCoy, an Edmonton man who has mined on the Saskatchewan for many years, made for Glenora. On the way from my tent pretty badly. Otherwise had a good trip. There was quite a lot of scurvy on the Dease and Liard rivers.

THE Canadian Militiaman has just been issued by the G. M. Rose & Son company, limited, a Toronto publishing firm. This paper, which is a new venture, is a semi-annual supplement to the militia list. It is published to represent the views of the volunteers and to bring all classes of the service into closer touch. The illustrations, which are very numerous, are in the highest style of art and appropriate to the articles in which they appear, and the lithograph cover in ten colours, representing artistically arranged groups of the Canadian service, would have been an impossibility five years ago, but has been now done in Canada, as, indeed, is true of all the production. The articles are all well written and most interesting. The opening article, "The Militia, Yesterday and to-day," traces the rise and progress of our volunteers from the grim days of 1812. We next find a carefully compiled paper on Royal Military college, at Kingston, and a graphic story of the visit of the public school students to Florida. The lighter literature is contributed by well-known authors. Mr. Robert Barr, who is a Canadian by birth, and himself a volunteer, tells of his experience with the St. Thomas corps, and in another, full of quaint humor sets out "How Finley McGillis held the Pier." Mr. Theodore Roberts relates a touching story of the murder of Private John Brennan, of the 22nd. regiment during their visit to the then little capital of New Brunswick. The next number of the Militiaman will be published shortly before Christmas, and is to have special features appropriate to the holiday period.

FROM MCMURRAY.

T. McClelland, fur trader, of Fort McMurray on the Athabasca, arrived to-day from his trading post, bringing in his winter's catch of fur which will be put up for competition here.

The fur trade was good in the north and Mr. McClelland brings in a valuable lot of fur, including 100 martens, alone valued at $1,000. Mr. McClelland left his post on the 10th of June, tracking up the river, and reached Athabasca Landing in ten days. At points along the shore the ice was still piled 20 feet high.

The Yukon Valley Prospecting and Mining Co.'s men, in the charge of W. McLean, were met at Grand Rapids. Their guides had left them and they were laid up until others could be procured. The Hudson's Bay Co.'s boats were met 18 miles this side of McMurray.

Before returning north Mr. McClelland will re-visit his former home in Peterborough.

DEATH.

LAUFORTUNE.—In Edmonton on Wednesday, June 29th, 1899, Elizabeth, wife of Frank Laufortune, of Beaver lake, aged 31 years.

The deceased leaves a family of five children, the eldest being nine years and the youngest five days. The funeral leaves the residence of Joseph Brunelle, Nemayo avenue, to-morrow (Friday) 30th inst. at 8.30 a. m. for the Roman Catholic church.

MASONIC SERMON.

Last Sunday evening the members of the Masonic order in Edmonton, accompanied by visiting brethren, paraded from their hall to the Episcopal church where a special Masonic sermon was preached by the pastor Rev. H. A. Gray. The sermon, a synopsis of which is given below, was listened to with respectful attention by the attending Masons and the entire congregation. The text was John viii, 17. "If ye know these things happy are ye if ye do them," and in the course of his remarks Rev. Mr. Gray said:

A prominent feature of modern times is the growth of socialistic ideas, which however vague and indefinite in form, have as their object the remedy of the social evils of the day, by the introduction of some regulating principle.

Man created by God was made dependent on his Maker and his fellowmen, this condition being based on certain principles, by which it was regulated and protected. What then is needed as the remedy of socialism is looking for? It is not new principles but obedience to those already provided by divine wisdom. This idea of obedience is involved in the whole conception of man as a created being. It is imprinted on his duty to God and to man as set forth in Mosaic Law, and exemplified by Christ. The duty of obedience to "lawfully constituted authority" is binding upon all. In the principle of obedience to parents it is first taught to the child's mind, and the failure of many parents to fulfil this responsibility is evidenced by the wilfulness and disobedience so common among children around us. This widens as the child's experience widens until from obedience to parents it widens out with obedience to all lawful authority. This is a principle we are disposed to ignore. Man professing Christianity are disposed to accept Christianity as they imagine it or think it ought to be, but are not disposed to bend their ideas to what it really is according to divine revelation. As with Christianity so also with Masonry. Its strength and power lies in the ready obedience of members to its principles, as they are, not as each man may imagine them to suit himself. And the remedy of social evils whatever they are can be most effectively met by an obedience to those principles upon which the social conditions of man rests and which were laid down by the Creator, and cannot be improved upon by the modern socialist.

BANK ELECTION.

Returns from the Bank by-election for the legislative assembly which took place on Tuesday, give A. L. Sifton a majority of between 30 and 50 over Dr. Brett, the former member.

BIRTHS.

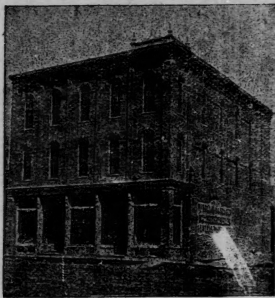

ROBINSON.—At Sturgeon settlement, the wife of John Robinson of a daughter.

THE ATLIN COUNTRY.

Jas. H. Miller, a Belleville man who visited Atlin and returned, says of that much boomed country:

The stories of great wealth in Atlin are mere fabrications of bunco speculators. Our party went in by way of Skagway about four months ago and have been there ever since without even seeing as much gold as many men carry in their teeth down east. There is only one claim, the discovery, on Pine creek that is paying at all. It was the first discovered and the owner has about a dozen men engaged. There are hundreds of men there working for their board and would be glad to come home if they could get away. Atlin is about 40 miles inland from Skagway, and the trail is something desperate. They are building a narrow gauge railway through from Skagway, but there is nothing for a man to make at work on it, as the cost of living is so high. Flour costs 30 cents a pound and other things in proportion.

SUPPLEMENT.

Who Pays It?

When the eastern retail tailoring establishment sends a representative to Edmonton, who pays his salary, railway fare and hotel expenses? Do his employers lose it, or do his customers pay for it in addition to paying the proper value of the goods and the usual percentage of profit thereon? The question answers itself.

The man who would be well clothed can do so by dealing with

CHEAP SENSATIONALISM.

Readers of the daily press have been regaled for some time past with despatches from Victoria or Vancouver, retailing with all the thrilling fervor of a dime novel, the ghastly stories of wholesale murders, suicides and starvation which occurred on that "death trap," the Edmonton trail to the Yukon. Carried away by the fervor of the thing the industrious compiler of yellow journal despatches killed hundreds of people who took the trail and thousands who were never near it. Among the victims of this wholesale thirst for human life were six inoffensive prospectors from Halifax, N. S. Despatches from Victoria told how nine prospectors, from Halifax, starved, broken down, sick and lost were struggling with the last energy of despair after a few Indians who were trying to lead them out of the great lost land, out of the shadow of the "valley of death," (situated somewhere near Dease lake, though not marked on the map), out of the land of their starvation and suffering, out into the light again. Three of them got safely away from that dread land in comparison to which Hades is a Paradise, the other six dropped behind and were lost on awful Hay mountain. "And when summer smiles again and the sun shines on Hay mountain and melts away the shroud of snow that wraps
the bodies of the unfortunates in its cold embrace, what ghastly tragedies
it will reveal; white glistening skel-tons and grinning skulls will be all that is left of those brave Halifax argonauts who sought for gold and found only death on the awful Edmonton route." The story was one calculated to move strong men to tears. The correspondent, however, over-reached himself. He was all right as long as he murdered people who never existed but when, emboldened by success, he thoughtlessly killed on Hay mountain six prospectors who actually did exist, he made the mistake of not arranging the matter before hand with them. As a result they innocently turned up,
very much alive, as shown by a Hal-fax despatch of the 14th, which says:
"The joyful intelligence was received to-day by Mr. Longford, a brother of one of the supposed unfortunates, that every one of the missing six had turned up safe and sound."

Comment is unnecessary.

SENECA ROOT.

The McMillan Fur & Wool Co., of Minneapolis, who deal largely in this root, write:

In regard to seneca root would say that not very much has been received yet. In some sections the cold weather this spring delayed digging. We have a good many delays to fill and are advertising for it quite extensively.
There will be an unlimited demand this year. We never receive very much seneca from your section, but believe it is there, and that large quantities could be dug if people would give their attention to it. At Prince Albert quite a large amount was formerly received, and if it is in Prince Albert section it must be in your section of the country. We hope to start digging in your section.
It is getting pretty well dug out in Minnesota and North Dakota, and in future supplies will have to come from Northwest Canada. A good many years ago enough was dug in Minneapolis and North Dakota to supply the want, but now it takes all that is dug in Manitoba to do so, and Manitoba furnishes a number of times as much as Minnesota and Dakota. The reason it is decreasing here and in North Dakota is either it is dug out or the land is ploughed up.

BEAVER LAKE EAST.

A west side humorist remarked lately that all the people on this side were up at Edmonton attending the court. It wasn't quite so bad as that.
Mosquitoes and gophers,
those pests of this locality, are out in force.

We have had a liberal
supply of rain, and, as a consequence, crops look well. One of your correspondents remarked not long since that a good map of the Northwest Territories was needed. It is.
Furthermore the present public and high school geographies should be retired. They are out of date in many respects. Geographies should be revised at least once every ten years.
The two mentioned are about twenty years behind the times. June 22.

ANGUS RIDGE.

Word has been received from Mr.
Wilson in Vancouver, B. C. He is well pleased so far. Josiah Shantz is foreman in Mr. Eggleston's livery in the burg. We had a pretty heavy rain on Wednesday.
Just what the crops require.
Mr. Abbott, overseer, has his men busy doing statute labor. It is what is needed in Battle river. Mr.
Jones is foreman for Mr. G. Waterston
this summer. J. McNichol's genial countenance is occasionally seen in our midst. Mac has many friends here. June 23.
